INFORMATION CONCERNING MY GENERAL TRUST ACCOUNT

INFORMATION CONCERNING MY GENERAL TRUST ACCOUNT

Line A
Represents the total sums held in your general trust account on the date of your last report, that is December 31 of the previous year. If this is your first report, you must enter: 0.

Line B
Represents the total of all the amounts that you have received in trust during the year (column 7 — trust accounting register) that have been deposited in your general trust account and for which you have issued receipts.

Line C
Represents the total amounts that you have withdrawn from your general trust account during the year (column 8 — trust accounting register), that is the sum of all your cheques, bills of exchange and electronic transfers.

Line D
Represents the sums that you are still holding in your general trust account for clients as indicated in your register of general trust account transactions.
NOTE: There is no question of service charges or interest in relation to the general trust account. The interest generated by this account must be paid into the financing fund of the OACIQ (3rd paragraph of section 28 of the Regulation respecting records, books and registers, trust accounting and inspection of brokers and agencies). The financial institutions have agreed not to withdraw any service charges on this account. In the event that service charges are imposed, you must obtain reimbursement from your financial institution or transfer a corresponding sum from your operating account and advise the OACIQ.

INFORMATION CONCERNING ALL MY SPECIAL TRUST ACCOUNTS

The agency or broker must deposit all the sums received from his/its clients in trust in his/its general trust account. However, every time a client expressly requires that he be paid the interest on the amount he deposits in trust, the agency or broker must transfer this sum from the general trust account to a special trust account or “term deposit” or any form of guaranteed investment on behalf of his client. This account must be closed when the record to which he is associated is finalized and the sum thus deposited, plus the interest, has been returned to the general trust account of the agency or broker to then be paid to the client or the acting notary’s trust account.

Every time a special account is opened, a copy of a “Declaration related to the opening of a special account” (Section 30 of the Regulation respecting records, books and registers, trust accounting and inspection of brokers and agencies) must be given to the financial institution and a copy must be kept by the agency or broker in the record for the transaction for inspection purposes.

The “Declaration related to the opening of a special trust account” form is available on the OACIQ web site at www.oaciq.com.

HOW TO COMPLETE THE BANK RECONCILIATION

BANK RECONCILIATION STATEMENT OF GENERAL TRUST ACCOUNT (PAGE 2 OF 4) AND EACH SPECIAL TRUST ACCOUNT (PAGE 3 OF 4) (HEREINAFTER BANK RECONCILIATION)

The purpose of the BANK RECONCILIATION is to make sure that the transactions entered in your transaction register are indeed confirmed by your financial institution for your general account as well as for each of your special accounts. The process used for the general account is then repeated for each of the special accounts.

Identity of the agency or broker

Please provide the information requested. If your account number or even your financial institution has changed, make the appropriate corrections and send the OACIQ a notice of closing of a general trust account and a declaration related to the opening of a general trust account. It is your duty to ensure that your information is up-to-date with the OACIQ.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTION AND ACCOUNT NO.

For the period ended 31/12/10

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have signed in this [signature of the executive officer of the agency or the broker or a person authorized for this purpose X]"
Line A  Represents the balance of the general trust account as provided by your financial institution in its statement on the last date of the period, that is on December 31, 20XX. Before entering this amount on line A, it is important to ensure that the financial institution did not add any interest or service charges.

NOTE: There is no question of there being any service charges or interest in the bank reconciliation in relation to the general trust account, since any interest generated by this account must be paid into the OACIQ’s financing fund and the financial institutions have agreed not to withdraw any service charges on this account. If this is not the case, you must obtain reimbursement from your financial institution or transfer a corresponding sum from your operating account. Under the agreement with the OACIQ, your financial institution must pay the interest on this account into the OACIQ’s financing fund.

Line B  Although the sums received in trust must be deposited in a trust account as quickly as possible, an amount or amounts deposited on the last day of the year might not be included in the bank statement prepared on that date. It must therefore be added to this line so that the bank statement matches your register. Do not forget to complete the “List of sums not yet deposited (B)” section and ensure that the amount on line “TOTAL: (B)” matches the amount that appears on line (B).

Line C  Represents the result of (A + B).

Line D  If you issued some cheques in the last days of the period, you immediately entered them in your register but the financial institution will not account for them until it honours them, that is in the subsequent year. You must therefore subtract the amount of these outstanding cheques from the balance provided by your financial institution, so that this balance matches the balance entered in your accounting register. Do not forget to fill out the “List of outstanding sums (D)” section and ensure that the amount on line “TOTAL: (D)” matches the amount that appears on line (D).

Line E  Represents the result of (C - D). No difference will remain between the balance on the statement provided by your financial institution for your general trust account and the balance in your register for the same account. This amount must match the amount you entered on line D of the SUMMARY.

Next, you must enter this same amount on the line marked “Total from general account (see E above)” in the “Information concerning all my trust accounts” section.
INFORMATION CONCERNING MY SPECIAL TRUST ACCOUNTS (PAGE 3 OF 4)

For the purposes of the Regulation respecting records, a special account is deemed to be a term deposit, guaranteed investment certificate (GIC) or savings account.

The process is the same for completing this section as the one you just used for reconciling your general account. You simply complete a line for each of your special trust accounts.

Before completing the page entitled “Information concerning all my special trust accounts” in the “BANK RECONCILIATION” part, check how many special trust accounts you have to enter. If the number of special trust accounts is more than three (3), you will have to make photocopies of the page so that you can itemize all of your accounts. You must then be sure to carefully number each page and carry over the total from each page into the space provided at the top of the next page and so on and so forth, up to and including the last page. The total will then be carried over to line J provided for this purpose on page 2 of the “Bank reconciliation statement of general trust account and each special trust account”.

NOTE: Although the regulation does not require that there be a register for special accounts, there is nothing to prevent you from creating one using the “Register of general trust account transactions” as an example.
